NEW YORK, Feb. 28—A special from Madrid says that yesterday the oratory of Spirito Sancto was robbed of its plate Holy vases, pictures, ornaments and interior of its popular shrine—the whole was a scene of perfect wreck—the altar and tabernacle had been profaned, and the eucharist cast on the floor by the theives, who broke open all the poor-boxes fixed in the walls. The occurrence has caused much sensation as the criminals forced the great door and altar railings in order to commit the robbery. It took place four hours before an animated debate in the Cortes on more acts of brigandage that had taken place in the southern provinces, where villages and churches were attacked.

M. de Lesseps on the Panama Canal Scheme.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—At the invitation of the American Society of Civil Engineers M. de Lesseps spoke last evening at the Union League Theatre to a large audience on the Panama canal project. He laid stress on the main fact that a sea-level canal could be built more easily and at less expense than a canal with locks, and said that while he had taken a committee of able engineers with him to the Isthmus at his own expense, and had left them free to decide as to the best mode of cutting a canal across the isthmus, he would have abandoned the project altogether if he had found that the eminent men who accompanied him had decided in favor of a canal with locks. On the contrary, however, they had declared in favor of a sea-level canal on the merits of the situation. The political interest which srang up to delay the beginning of work on the Suez canal were widely different from those put forth respecting the present scheme. "If any project can be called American," said M. de Lesseps, "this can. Myself and my committee have worked in American fashion, and put ourselves in relation with American interests." In conclusion, he said he felt perfectly confident of being able to overcome all engineering difficulties and carry through the work at less expense than had been named in the estimates.

The Swain of Swift Creek.

Correspondence of the News.

SWIFT CREEK, February 27.—Your correspondent feels like he had been in the Black Hills for six months and only because he done his duty and staid where you ought to have joined him—those sappers and miners (Manly, Busbee, Hayes, Heart, Moore, Batchelor, Frank Stronach, Dr. Love, etc.,) are too much to make an honest man spend the day without help,—sick, I should think I was sick.

Everything in your correspondent's head to-day is apoligies, and where to start to make them I am confounded to know, Just let's see—there's a screw loose somewhere and I can't see what the NEWS wants to apologize for as we are sure its course is straight forward.

I declare there is some of the finest wire grass in the country your correspondent has been traveling through for the NEWS that I ever saw, and I am certain if you will bring it to the attention of Colonel Bowling Stark, of the telephone, he can use it. By the by, there is a history connected with the introduction of that tenacious grass; but ah! too sick to tell, Mr. Buck Boylan's father brought it here, and here it remains in its glory.

There are little things that don't amount to much, like ploughing your fields in December and cleaning up your ditches and taking in a small piece of new ground, but when you come to settle with the children in them guano stores next fall you'll find the odds. G.

WASHINGTON WRIGGLES

SAILORS AND OFFICERS OF NAVY WITH YELLOW FEVER.

Postmaster General Key and That Appropriation for the Star Service.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The following sent to Second Assistant Postmaster General Brady to day: "In consideration of the action of House of Representatives of the appropriation of $1,070,000 for the continuance of the Star Service and pending action of the Senate to suspend further action under my order of February 20th untill further advised. (signed) D. M. Key."

The Paper Tax.

Thomasville Enterprise.

We trust all who represent Georgia will do their utmost for the Fort bill, or some other one that will accomplish the same purpose.

Dalton Citizen.

By all means let Congress remove a portion of the duty on paper and articles used in its manufacture.

Talbotton Register.

The millions who read should not be made to pay tribute to a few grasping, conscienceless paper associations, who are now striving to raise the price of all classes of print paper.

Hartwell Sun.

Away with all taxes and tariffs, and other obstacles in whatever shape or form, that makes knowledge costly and its diffusion obstructed. We believe if Georgia's delegation in Congress would lend their able efforts in this direction a grateful people would almost unanimously approve their course.

Crawfordville Democrat.

It is essential and necessary that the import tax on these articles be removed; and the specious plea that it will not materially aid in the reduction of the price of paper is not tenable. We ask for the removal of the tax and then we can ascertain upon trial how the crucis experimetum operates.

Cuthbert Messenger,

We ask our immediate Congressman, Hon. Wm. E. Smith, to lend his vote and influence on the side of publishers' industry and against the Shylocks who are bleeding the intelligence of the whole country, and those seeking knowledge. We have no fears but that our Congressman will heed the appeal made upon him, still we hope some good friend of the publisers will the yeas and nays call upon this question when it comes to a vote. We desire to know who our friends are both in the House and Senate.

Walton County Vidette.

A bill is pending in Congress having for its object the repeal of the obnoxious duty on paper and bleaching chemicals, and we hope our immediate representative in Congress will support the measure with all his power. It is based on the "live and let live" principle, and will relieve both interests of existing abnormal burdens and liberate the public from an odious tax on knowledge. The policy of wisdom is to repeal injurious and unnecessary taxes of all kinds. We again insist that Mr. Blount, and indeed the whole Georgia delegation, vote for the repeal bill.

Sale of Mr. Astor's Racehorses.

Baker & Son's Tattersalis, at Broadway and Thirty-ninth street, was crowded yesterday at the sale of Mr. Wm. Astor's racehorses. Among the turfmen present were Pierre Lorillard, J. G. K. Lawrence, J. H. Coster, the new Secretary of the American Jockey Club, Col. D. McDaniel and others. The bidding was very slow, and except in one or two instances the horses were almost given away. The first placed under the hammer was the chestnut three year old Ferncliffe, by Leamington and running back to the Godolphin Arabian. Sold, with engagements, to W. R. Babcock, for $4,800. A fine three year old bay colt, brother to Vagrant, by Virgil, sold, with engagements to M. Cattuacht, for $450. Vanderdecken, three year old chestnut colt, oy imported Glenelg, was bought by Mr. Tarr; price $375. Fulton, three year old bay gelding, by Harry Bassett, was knocked down to Thomas Meigher for $50. Mulrooney, four year old bay colt, by Kingfisher, was secured by Mr. A. Hopson, of Brooklyn, for $300. Saladin, four year old bay gelding, by Kingfisher, bred by Mr. August Belmont, was purchased by Mr. White of this city; price $50. The last horse sold, Morphine, a six year old chesnut gelding, by imported Eclipse, was purchased by Mr. John Fraser, Greenpoint; price $90.

These racehorses were all sound. Ferncliffe ran second to Sensation for the Nursery Stakes in Jerome Park last fall. It was the only place he secured in nine races. He is nominated for all the principal three year old stakes this season, amounting to about $50,000.

Mr. Astor will still continue breeding racehorses at Ferncliffe, but he has retired permanently from the turf.

Fifteen Years to Iron the Shortest Branch.

Asheville Citizen.

It is evident to our minds that the State can never build the Ducktown road, or at least not in this generation—she is not able financially, if the people were united to the purpose—and under the present appropriation (should it be continued that long) it would take the State, without any extraneous aid, and at the present prices of railroad iron, fifteen years to iron the bed from the Swannanoa bridge to Paint Rock, a distance of 45 miles. The appropriation is $70,000 per annum, $20,000 of this goes to construction and other purposes, and when Asheville is reached this amount will be divided between the Ducktown and Paint Rock roads, leaving $25,000 to be used in ironing the latter branch. It is estimated that it costs $8,000 per mile to iron the bed, and thus it will be seen that fifteen years would be necessary to complete this branch alone without any other help.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, February 24.—The sun broke forth this morning on what is apparently a beautiful spring day, a splendid time for church going, for to use a slang phrase, that is at present all the go. No such day in Asheville ever seemed to attract with more earnestness throngs of people than seems to be attracted by the revival meeting now in progress at the Baptist church. On every occasion, both in the morning and at night, house which is a comodious one is filled to overflowing, and not unfrequently is it the case, that many go there and are compelled to leave, not being able to find even room enough in the house to stand. So confident are the people of a crowded house and so anxious are they to attend, that like as is said Beecher's church in Brooklyn, numbers can be seen even hours before the time for services moving in that direction. And indeed, judging from observation does it seem that the services are a success, for many of whom were consided the hardest hearted men of the village have been made to yield to its influences.

On Sunday last some seventeen persons joined themselves to the Baptist church and nine to the Methodist. Mr. Dixon the new Baptist pastor is certainly a success.

There are quite a number of drummers from the mercantile establishments of the Northern cities in town this week, what success they are making selling their articles of merchandise I know not, but I do know that some of them at least seem to be making considerable headway among the young ladies. One of them I fear is making himself in this a barrier to me, I feel very much like drumming the drummer out of town.

The celebrated railroad suit of Mark Young vs. The Western North Carolina Railroad, is creating among some, quite a stir, from the amount of interest which they may probably have in it. Thos. D. Carter who claims a large interest in the road is in the village looking after said suit as busily as a bee. C.

Satisfactory All Around.

A tender-hearted stranger of well-to-do exterior, passing by the broad stone steps of Warsaw Cathedral, perceived a poorly dressed woman crouched at their foot, weeping loudly and wringing her hands in deep tribulation. Touched by her evident distress, he stopped and asked what was the matter. "Kind, gracious sir," replied the sobbing woman, "I am the most unfortunate creature in the world. I want to get my baby christened, but the Pope demands two roubles, and I have not a single copeck." "Is that all?" observed the pitiful stranger; "take this five-rouble note, go straight to the Pope, pay him his christening fee, and bring me out the three roubles change." With joyful promptitude the recipient of his bounty entered the church, whence she presently emerged with three silver roubles, which she handed over to her benefactor, expressing her heartfelt gratitude for his timely succor, and her surprise at his apparently disinterested kindness. "My good woman," answered the philanthropist, with a beaming smile, "your astonishment is uncalled for. You see, I am one of those people who cannot bear to contemplate the unhappiness of their fellow creatures. I must always see joyous faces around me. Besides, everybody concerned in this transaction is pronted by it. The Pope has got his fee, your child will be christened, your mind is at ease, and I have derived three good silver roubles from a benevolent action and—a bad five-rouble note!"

The Three Necessities.

Correspondence of the News.

WELDON, Feb. 26.—When the extra session meets, the General Assembly should do three things as a prime necessity. First. Repeal the Western N. C. railroad tax of $260,000 annually. With a deficiency of $240,000 in the State treasury, as reported by Dr. Worth, and in the face of an overwhelming public sentiment, this should be speedily done. Second. Trim down the ornamental "Bureau of Military Agriculture," with its $25,000 of annual expenditure to a business basis. Third. Have the School bill signed and give the children a chance in the race of life.

As to the sale of the "Mud-Cut" railroad, or of all four of the State roads, let that depend upon whether the terms offered are good or not. If the price and guarantees offered for the State railroads, or any one of them, is sufficient, take it and get the railroads out of politics. If not, wait juntil a fair price is offered. But sale or no sale, lift the taxes off of us. H.

SAN FRANCISCO SIFTS.

THE ANTI-COOLY OF CALIFORNIA AND WESTERN LABORERS.

Dennis Kearney Becomes More than Usually Obscure---The Heathen Chinee Must Go.

By Telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—It appears that some misapprehension exists abroad as to the real situation here. It is not true that the agitation has assumed a socialist aspect, nor is there any good reason to believe that within a few days a mob will march on Chinatown. Several things have combined to bring about the present critical condition of affairs. Processions of the unemployed, and their demands for the discharge of Chinese, and employment of white labor, have excited the workingmen and irritated capital. The passage of a law forbidding corporations to employ Chinese, and the refusal of certain corporation managers to comply with the law until it has been interpreted by the United States courts, has aggravated the mutual hard feeling. The action of the board of health in declaring Chinatown a nuisance was supposed by the workingmen to mean immediate and wholesale condemnation of the Chinese quarter and removal of the occupants to the outskirts of the city, and the delay necessarily arising in carrying out the decree of condemnation in detail, under legal processes, has given rise to apprehension that an effort is on foot to defeat the measure. These things have combined to impress the workingmen with the belief that, while they have both law and justice in the case on their side, an organized attempt is afoot to resist the laws and rob them of the benefits they have expected from their operations.

This belief has been fostered and their fears worked up to the highest pitch of apprehension by the very windy declamation of some of their leaders, until they are undoubtedly living in daily expectation of an uprising of the vigilance committee, backed by the police and military, for the purpose of killing their leaders and trampling the law under foot. As a matter of fact, the condemnation of Chinatown meets with the almost unanimous approval of all citizens and classes. Corporations are daily discharging the Chinese, pending interpretation of the law, and the relief movement would have been actively progressing but for the violent harangues of the last few days. On the other hand, the incendiary language of the agitators has alarmed and exasperated the business classes until the are ready to arm in self defense. Both parties are lashing themselves into fury over the almost imaginary and suppostious grounds of disagreement. There is no doubt that Mayor Kalloch means to use all of his influence with his followers to keep peace, but he probably recognizes the fact that to maintain his influence over them it is necessary, to a certain extent, to fall into their ways of speech and action. At the present time a few calm words between the leaders of the workingmen and the business classes would go far to create a better understanding, and would remove all danger of conflict. From appearances to-day there is reason to believe that something of the kind has taken place, and that influences tending to a pacific solution of the question are at work. It is understood that Kearney has gone to Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., February 28.—Since Kearney's return from the east he has been making himself very officious about the legislature. This led to the motion evidently aimed at Kearney to exclude all but privileged persons from the floor of the Assembly.

After the adjournment Kearney approached Adams, of Sanawa, in the House, and used threatening language toward him on account of his action on the motion.

Yesterday Tyler, of Alameda offered a resolution to exclude Kearney from the Assembly Chamber and from the Galleries, Lobbies, halls, Committee rooms, etc., under a contract of the Assembly.

The resolution was referred to a special committee who, after hearing the evidence, decided to report that Kearney had been guilty of an attempt to intimidate Adams.

Besides this, there was a lively passage over another matter: A few days ago Mr. Kingman, the member from San Francisco, telegraphed to Kearney: "We hear you are erecting a gallows on the Sand Lots. There is more need of erecting a gallows in Sacramento. Come up immediately and bring some hemp."

The telegram found its way into the papers, and a resolution to inquire into the matter was introduced. A lively discussion ensued, during which Mr. Brownbarett, a workingman from San Francisco, flatly refused to obey the order of the Speaker to sit down. He was brought to the bar of the House and was suspended for three days.

SAN FRALCISCO, Cal., Feb. 28.—The Board of Supervisors at a special meeting yesterday, rescinded the resolution passed at the last meeting, endorsing the action of the Board of Health in condemning Chinatown.

The resolution of endorsement to the committee on Health and Police, to inquire into the best method of carrying out the measure and the rescinding of the resolution was based on the ground that no report had been received from that committee.

A communication was received from the Mayor, objecting to the recent order of increasing the police force, and holding that was unnecessary. Referred to the committee on Health and Police.

Rescinding of the resolution endorsing the action of the Board of Health will not necessarily affect the action on the condemnation of Chinatown, as the board has full power in premises.

L. J. Gannon, chairman of the committee of unemployed, who has been prominent in calling upon employers of Chinese, asking substitution of white men, speaking on the Sand Lots and generally heading the movements of the unemployed, was arrested last evening on a warrant charging him with the use of incendiary language at the Sand Lots the day before yesterday, he was bailed out by sheriff Dosenend.

In a communication to the Board of Supervisors yesterday, Mayor Kalloch stated that he had been told by ex-supervisor Gibbs that the police had definite information that a plan had been organized to fire the city in several different places. He further stated that he believed the report to be without foundation in fact.

The unemployed workingmen held another meeting at the Sand Lots yesterday, and were addressed by Mayor Kalloch, who told them that while their grievances were real and their talk, for the most part, sensible, yet a continuance of such gatherings only afforded an opportunity for the utterance of ill-timed expressions likely to retard, rather than advance the object in view; that a committee would be appointed with whom he would confer firmly, and to whom he would report progress, if any was made, in the way of relief, and in the meantime meetings would be dispensed with, but subject to the call of the Committee. This was satisfactory to the crowd, and no more meetings will be held for the present.

A FRENCHMAN'S TRICK.

How He Swindled Capitalists With His Wonderful Revolution in Telegraphy.

NEW YORK, February 24.—Descriptions of a wonderful invention in telegraphy, by which any number of messages might be sent simultaneously in both directions, over one wire, have appeared from time to time in the press. The inventor, a Frenchman named Chasse, sent descriptions and diagrams far and near and speculative capitalists became interested. He convinced those who saw that he told the truth, and a company, made up in the main of Boston and Hartford men, was formed, and a round sum of cash was contributed. There were, according to the Frenchman, nothing but petty details to overcome.

That was six or eight months ago. Some of the newspapers contained columns of matter on the discovery, which it was said was to revolutionize telegraphy, and so it was promised to do. Chasse was established in Hartford in a well-appointed office, and was well supplied with cash, with which to perfect the arrangement. Very recently he announced his complet triumph. Practical telegraphers from New York were summoned with the capitalists to witness a trial. Chasse's shop was fitted up with eighteen instruments in one end connected with eighteen instruments in the other end by a single wire The connecting wires led up the partitions in full view to the main wire. When all was ready the thirty-six instruments were set to work, and to the appearances thirty-six messages were sent at once over the one wire, eighteen in one direction and eighteen in another.

The capitalists rubbed their hands in glee, but Mr. William Hadden, one of the electricians of the American Union Company, of this city, said to himself that although it seemed to be accomplished, it nevertheless was impossible, and he set to work to discover the fraud. His questions were not satisfactorily answered. Noticing that the insulated wires were neatly connected to the partitions by double-pointed tacks, he drew one of them and discovered that that one leg of the tack ran into a fine copper wire, down through the partition and out of sight. It was so arranged as to make a complete circuit. Chasse instantly raised a row, but the telegraphers stood by Hadden, and in five minutes the swindle was disclosed. Chasse has fled from Hartford, and his wonderful system will yet have to be invented.

Fooled Again.

Detroit Free Press.

For three long hours yesterday forenoon a stranger sat on a horse block on Woodward avenue, near the parks, in the cold north wind, closely watching vehicles and pedestrians, and acting as if he expected something of importance to occur. His long hair, cadaverous face and seedy dress at length attracted the attention of a policeman to him, and the officer asked why he sat there.

"Say," replied the man, as he rose up and reached out to shake hands, "I believe I've been fooled again. It's long enough after 10 o'clock, and she hasn't happened yet."

"What's that? What is to happen?"

"Say, may be you'll think I'm green, but I honestly believed the world was to come to an end at 10 o'clock to-day. So did dad. So did mam. So did sister Hannah. Feller came through our neighborhood in January and give us the date and told us to be ready. The old folks wanted to go up from the front yard, but I preferred to come to town. I walked seven miles this morning, and was here at half-past 9. Say, why didn't she end as advertised? What's the use of fooling a feller this way?"

"Are you ninny enough to believe such things?" asked the officer.

"Well, kinder. This is the third time I've been ready, and it seems I'm fooled again. Say, perhaps it was postponed on account of the weather?"

"Like enough."

"I guess not though. I guess we got the date wrong. Say, wouldn't this be a bully place to stand and see the performance! Cracky! but when the earth began to heave, the trees to fall, the waters to rise and the heavens to flame, wouldn't things around here look sick?"

"You'd better go home."

"Yes, I suppose so. If she was to come off to-day she'd have been on time. Say, you don't go much on the world coming to an end pretty soon, do you?"

"Not a cent."

"Well I do. So does the old man. So does mam. So does Hannah. He ain't going to miss it if we know ourselves The old man will feel worse than I do, for he's got to pay a note of $60 to-morrow. Hannah won't care much, for she's been engaged eight times and is used to disappoinments. Say, how do you suppose the performace will commence when it does come off?"

"Haven't any idea."

"Haven't, eh? Be a high old time, won't they? Sugar and tea and such stuff will come down over half, and you police won't feel much like knocking men down and jumping on 'em. Say, the performance is off, isn't it?"

"I guess so."

"Well, I'll go home. Kinder mean to fool a feller this way, but I can stand it if the old world can. May be she's going to wait for warm weather. Say, did ——"

"You'd better go."

"Yes, I know; but it's kinder funny to think of dad and mam sitting out in the front yard all puckered up and ready to go off, and Hannah in the front bedroom up stairs singing 'I want to be an Angel' through her nose! Ha! ha! ha! Kinder flat on me, too, eh? Hoofed it seven miles to be fooled on the string game. Say, don't ——"

The officer was moving away.

"Say, you!"

But the officer wouldn't, and after a lingering look around, the young man took his way up Woodward avenue, walking between the car tracks and looking for cracks in the pavement.

Graded Schools.

Speaking of Graded Schools the Wilson Advance of the 27th says:

"These schools appear to have given satisfaction wherever they have been organized and conducted by competent teachers. Raleigh and Greensboro have been especially benefitted by them, not only in the superior educational facilities which they have afforded but in the auxiliary aid which they have given to existing institutions of learning. It is stated upon reliable authority that the Peace Institute, St. Mary's and the Baptist Female Seminary have all been materially benefitted by the excellent graded schools of Raleigh. The same result has followed the adoption of the system in Greensboro. And now Charlotte is anxious for a graded school, which is ably advocated by the Observer and Democrat. Why should we not have one in Wilson?"

Nerve

It is a great thing to have what it called nerve, and nothing contributes more to the power of physical control thus named than Warner's Safe Nervine. It also relieves all kinds of pain, and cures headache and neuralgia.

SUNDAY SALAD.

FOR SAINTS AND SINNERS TO DIGEST.

"Speaking in Parables." A most interesting Article From the Christian Observer.

The Scribes in olden times were in the habit of putting their teachings into parable form. In strong contrast was the early teachings of Jesus. It was so plain, so direct, so simple, so authoritative, that the people were astonished at his doctrine, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the Scribes."

But after this kind of public instruction had been maintained for a year or more, Christ (as recorded in the thirteenth chapter of Matthew) changed the character of his preaching and began to speak in parables. It was the same day that the Scribes had accused him of casting out devils by Beelzebub. When the disciples found him alone, they asked him why he spoke in parable form. His answer is significant:

I. Because it is given unto to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven. There were in that day many mysteries of the kingdom, matters which hitherto had not been understood or revealed, but which Jesus desired at that time to reveal and explain to his disciples. They were matters of such novelty that if declared in plain language they would not have been readily comprehended by the disciples. The parable form of presenting them had and has several advantages:

It is the most attractive. The story attracts the attention of the hearer and makes him listen; it arouses his curiosity, and makes him think about it; and thus attention is gained which never could be gained by the mere didactic statement of the truth involved.

It is the most simple form of presenting truth. If a child should ask what a sphere is, and we answer, "It is a solid body whose surface is at every point equidistant from the centre," the child would stare in amazement. But pick up an orange, and tell him "It is something round, like this," and he understands at once. Gospel truth is as hard for the unconverted to understand as mathematical propositions for the child. Therefore Jesus puts his gospel truth into the concrete form of a story, to enable the sinner to grasp it quickly.

It is the most clear. There are many gospel truths, as well as many mental actions, for which, in our practical languages of this world, there are no corresponding words. The intellectual ideas are expressed by borrowing words which originally described physical actions, and attaching to them secondary meanings. Thus we speak of "impressing a thought" on the mind. Impressing is strictly an action of the hand or foot. But these phrases express only approximately the intellectual idea. So gospel truths have to be revealed (and can be only inadequately revealed) through words borrowed from a language framed to meet our physical wants, Just here the parable comes in use to explain what cannot be made clear through the inadequate of direct statement. The man who cannot comprehend the instruction, "Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness," can yet understand the parable of the unjust steward. The love of God which can find no adequate expression in any English word can yet be partially, at least, set forth by the description of the prodigal's father straining his eyes down the road for a glimpse of his erring child, running to meet him, ordering a ring, shoes, the best robe and the fatted calf for the polluted, erring, repentant child.

It is the most permanent. Years after a didactic statement of the truth would be forgotten, the story and the truth associated with it return to the mind. Ten times does the picture of the wise and foolish virgins affect the heart to once that the warning, "Be ye also ready," comes back to our thoughts.

It is the most impressive. If Nathan had gone to David to reason with him about his treatment of Uriah, the king might have either argued with him indefinitely or have ordered him out of the palace. But the parable of the poor man's lamb at once impressed the conscience of David so that he needed no argument to make him repent and confess his sin.

II. The parable is a test of character. It reveals at once which are the men who really have a desire to possess the truth, and who they are that care not. The one class will ask the meaning of the parable and learn from it better than from the mere didactic statement of the truth; the other class will wonder at it, and at once forget it. "To him that hath shall be given; from him that hath not shall be taken away." And when the day shall come in which God will explain to all creatures his providential dealings on earth, the treatment of these parable teachings by the people of each class, will be a most convincing evidence of the justice and mercy of God in his dealings with each.

III. The parable protests the truth from insult. On that day they who had accused Jesus of casting out devils by Beelzebub, were placed in such a position that they could no longer effectively cast contumely upon the sacred teachings.

IV. The parable teaching contains the punishment which God gives to those who will not heed his gospel. That punishment is that seeing they shall not see, and hearing they shall not hear, nor understand. It was realized then; for those scoffers were deprived of the gospel truth which they rejected. "Whosoever hath not from him shall be taken away, even that he hath," was our Savior's utterance on this occasion. And what more fearful punishment could God put on a man than to cut him off from gospel privileges, and leave him to provide for his own future happiness as best he may.

The marvellous wisdom of Christ in thus devising a mode of teaching at once the best for his own children, the best for a test of character and the maintenance of his own glory, the best for the protection of the truth and for the punishment of the scoffer, is past our comprehension. "How unsearchable are his judgments and his ways past finding out."

The Christian minister may learn a lesson from this. If Christ, with his infinite command of language, found it wise thus to illustrate his sermons, it were well for us to study no less to make the truth attractive.

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Propr

MAYBE Tilden is for Jewett, and then again maybe Jewett is for Tilden. There are a good many surprises in modern politics.

THE New York Herald fund for Ireland is now hard upon a quarter of a million of dollars. A contribution of $50 went to it the other day instead of to the "conscience fund." A little boy sends a dollar which he meant to apply to the purchase of harness for his billy goat, but concluded it had better be sent "to some poor boy in Ireland to buy a pair of shoes for him to go to school with." The Secretary of the Navy informs the Herald that he is ready, under the authority conferred by Congress, to honor any demand made for chartering vessels to carry provisions to the starving Irish, and all that he is waiting for is a cargo. Donations are invited from merchants, who, in many cases, would more readily give supplies than cash. The various auxiliary relief movements throughout the country are being vigorously prosecuted, and there is apparently an increase rather than a diminution in the good work.

PEOPLE who have not forgotten the ready submission of the entire Democratic party of the country in 1877 to the inauguration of the minority candidate for the Presidency will be slow to perceive the force of Senator Conkling's declaration at the Utica Convention that it will be necessary to have a "decided, unmistakable result" and "a man with the country behind him" to prevent revolutionary plotters from setting aside the popular verdict at this year's national election. The "result" of the last Presidential contest was by no means "decided and unmistakable"—certainly not in favor of Mr. Hayes—and yet the 8 to 7 decree of the Electoral Commission was quietly accepted by the Democrats without the least menace of resistance and, in fact, with hardly a murmur of remonstrance. Now, however, Mr. Conkling insinuates that the Republican candidate for President, though clearly and unquestionably elected next November, will need to be a "strong man," with the people at his back, to enable him to take his seat. The cogency of such remarks is not entirely evident.

POOR HAYES.

No one will begrudge Gen. Arthur and Senator Conkling their personal revenge upon Mr. Hayes at the Utica Convention.

Gen. Arthur was collector of the port of New York. Mr. Hayes compelled him to vacate the office solely because he was a friend to Senator Conkling. He was admitted by merchants of both parties to be a competent and courteous officer. His removal constituted a flagrant violation of the principles of civil service reform avowed by Mr. Hayes, and forming, next to the fraud of its origin, the chief distinguishing characteristic of his Administration.

And now in the resolutions of the Republican Convention of this great State, Mr. Hayes and his Administration are passed over in ignominious silence! No more mention is made of them than if they had never existed. And this, too, although the resolutions were reported by Mr. Stoughton, recently Mr. Hayes's Minister to St. Petersburg.

Mr. Hayes will probably conclude that Republicans, if not republics, are ungrateful.

THE CALIFORNIA CHINESE.

It would undoubtedly have been far better for California if John Chinaman had never set foot upon her shores. He is a pagan, and a very inveterate and vile one. In nearly every respect the Chinese are aliens to us, and to our usages, ideas and institutions. Scarcely any points of contact in sympathies, aims, motives or traditions exist between them and us. They constitute an incongruous and disturbing element in our American community, and the influence of their presence amongst us is unwholesome. It is all very fine to say that the United States should welcome all comers from all lands and gladly admit them to an equal participation in the benefits we ourselves enjoy. There are limits, however, beyond which this good-natured doctrine of fraternity cannot be safely carried. In one sense of the word, all men have a joint origin and a common destiny. But nature and history have affixed wide differences between the various races of mankind that we should hesitate to disregard. The Mongolian is about as far removed as can well be conceived in all his traits and qualities, physical, mental and moral, from the type to which we belong. His civilization, if it may be called such, his manners, his ethics, his habits of thought and nearly everything about him are altogether foreign to those of our branch of the human family. Unlike most other heathen races, the Chinese cannot apparently be brought into our modes of belief and action. The converts from amongst them to Christianity are but a few scores. So far as their methods of thinking and ours are concerned there seems to be no common ground.

The treaties by virtue of which the Chinese are in the United States must be observed so long as they remain in force, but it is a misfortune that the treaties ever existed. Here on the eastern slope of the continent the evil which has resulted from them is as yet hardly felt. On the Pacific coast, however, it has become an intolerable grievance. It is needless to enumerate the particular facts which make Chinese in California a most pestilent and discordant element of the body politic. Kearneyism, with its continual menace to law and order, reprehensible as it is and abandoned as is its great apostle, is a legitimate outgrowth of the antagonism to this degraded race, which has grown to so vast proportions within the last few years. The argument of the Sand Lots is perhaps not very logical when measured by the strict rules of dialectics, but it is that of men of the same blood and lineage as ourselves, who see the bread snatched day after day by the almond-eyed aliens from the mouths of their wives and babes.

A great deal has been said about protection to American labor. There is need for such protection in California against a competition which is far more ruinous than the "pauper labor of Europe" ever was or ever can be. The treaty with China should be abrogated, or at least so modified as to turn back the tide of immigration the mischievous results of which have no adequate compensation in any commercial advantages arising from it.

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs ——of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day.

E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, MASS., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large box $1, SI. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 3 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

For Sale.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each, situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One-third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

——Forty marriage licenses issued in February.

——Masquerade skating party Friday night.

——It's most time for straw hats to pop up again.

——All quiet at the hotel D'Nowell.

——Be sure to be on hand at Tucker Hall to-morrow night.

——Leave your pistols at home, if you have one—either pistol or home.

——The Superior court adjourned yesterday after a three weeks' session.

——Bishop Lyman will preach at the church of the Good Shepherd this morning.

——The Democratic State Exective Committee meet in this city Wednesday next.

——Several distinguished muscled gentlemen are noticed among the recent additions to the tramp force.

——A daughter of N. J. & Emiline Cheek died in this city Friday; the funeral took place yesterday.

——Senator Vance is in Charlotte on business. He expects to return to Washington the early part of this week.

——Men who usually set a high value upon themselves, don't consider they are worth much when it comes to giving bail.

——J. D. Creech has accepted J. I Johnson's challenge to shoot a match at twenty pigeons. The match will come off in about two weeks.

——W. T. Saunders, Durham, has a letter in the post office with no stamp. Florence Livingston, Fayetteville, also has one held for the same reason.

——"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," but a sixteen octavo dinner gong has a more soothing effect upon the civilized stomach of a hungry man than a marine brass band.

——Mr. Butt informs us that he is billed for another place Tuesday night, and cannot, positively, exhibit but once in this city. Be sure and attend Tucker Hall Monday night, or you will miss a rare treat.

——The west side of Fayetteville street, between Exchange Place and Hargett street, late in the afternoon presents more the appearance of a wagon yard than the principal street of a thriving city. That locality seems to be the favorite resort for idle drays, as they daily congregate there, and often monopolise nearly the entire street, much to the inconvenience and annoyance of the business men of that vicinity. It is hoped that our worthy Chief of Police will direct them to more congenial quarters.

Death.

Mr. A. J. Partin yesterday lost his infant son. Funeral will be held this afternoon.

Attention Rescue Company.

The regular monthly meeting of your company will be held at your hall on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

Governor Jarvis has ordered an election for the 11th of March in Washington county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of a member of the legislature from that county—Mr. J. M. Bateman.

A Lunatic.

The city authorities have taken charge of a white man who is undoubtedly crazy. His friends have been communicated with, and until their arival he is cared for at the station house. His name is Hobby,

Police Court.

Mayor Manly had only one trivial case, that of a d— and d—, yesterday to dispose of, and so he adjourned over 'til Monday morning, when the usual number of Saturday night rows and Sunday drunks will receive attention.

Blank Books.

Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co. have just received the largest and handsomest lot of full bound blank books ever in the city; also a good stock of all the various styles of half bound books.

Quick Work.

Our pressman understands all about presses. He took down and put up again yesterday, our largest press, the one used for book work, and in three hours had it running again over to our new press room.

Dr. Worth On the Railroad.

Dr. J. M. Worth yesterday came out in a circular giving his reasons for advising the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad. We may publish it at some future time.

Harris, T. R. Purnell, J. E. O'Hara, J. H. Williamson and—shades of the great!—W. V. Turner and "Jeems" H. Harris.

If a man is to be judged by the company he keeps, surely the report that Jim had rotated again, must be true.

Revelation.

The exhition of these paintings wherever exhibited has drawn from the press and the people the highest expressions of praise. In Goldsboro and Newbern where it was advertised for one night each only, the citizens of these towns prevailed upon Mr. Butts to repeat, and he exhibited before crowded houses in both places two nights each. Be sure and attend Tucker Hall to-morrow night.

Here is what the Newbern Nut Shell says:

The Panorama is decidedly the best ever brought to Newbern and we doubt if a better one was ever put on any stage. It is impossible for us to do this master piece of art full justice in this notice, but we advise all our citizens who cannot attend the Matinee this afternoon, to go to-night, and see for themselves.

The house was filled last night with an appreciative audience.

A Word of Expostulation.

Our citizens will soon be called upon to display their generosity, for which they are noted; exercise the patience of several Jobs, and display an unbounded stock of benevolence. Their christian spirit will be called into play and their manifested tenderness for the brute creation is expected to exceed even that of Mr. Burgh himself.

The garden season is upon us—and so are the cows. The prudent and fore sighted citizen is anticipating the enjoyment of an early garden of relishable vegetables—and so, too, are the cows.

Some fine afternoon after the heat and worry of the day's labor is over, the happy proprietors of these "garden spots" will be satisfactorily regarding the rapid growth of the plants, and noticing, with a satisfied air, that before two more suns he will have his first "mess" of vegetables.

"Ah, my dear," he remarks to the partner of his bosom, as they wend their way through the different walks, "these egg-plants will be just right to eat to-morrow, and the lettuce is just large enough not to be too tough. The raddishes have attained quite growth enough to use a few of them also."

"Yes," she replies, "and by Sunday we can have a nice plate of cabbage and perhaps some of these early peas; but, my love," she continues, "I am in constant dread that those dreadful cows will break in and spoil everything, as they did last year."

"Oh, no fear of that," replies the husband, "haven't you noticed that I have put a patent latch on the gate that nothing but a human being can open, and they cannot unless they know the key."

"Well, if that is true, I suppose things are safe there."

The husband then explains the mysteries of this patent latch, and then they adjourn to the sitting room with a satisfied mind.

Poor, deluded mortals! They fail to notice that "blaze-faced" cow standing on the outside, attentively listening to their conversation. When they get to that part where the husband explains how the spring is put on the latch, and where you press it to open the gate, "old blaze" draws closer and eagerly drinks in every word.

That night "old blaze's" mouth begins to water for a bait of early vegetables, and with the solution safely laid back in her head, she makes for that garden gate. It is soon opened, and not until the early dawn drives her away does she for a moment cease devouring everything eatable.

Now this man may not be possessed of a great amount of patience, and affection for dumb brutes may not be among his stock of virtues, so we wish to expostulate with him and his sort a little.

"Be kind to the cow!" Don't shoot her when you get up next morning and view the wholesale destruction she has wrought. And when you sit down to your dinner and begin to think of the peas, and lettuce, and raddishes, don't curse that cow; but sympathizingly remember that you have perhaps saved a poor brute from starvation. Don't take an oath that you will never plant another garden, but rather come the pinafore dodge by putting the "hardly ever" into immediate practice by planting more seed, for when they grow and are about ripe again, "old blaze," or some other cow, will be hungry "nigh unto death," and you will have the sweet satisfaction of knowing that you have again contributed to the famine fund. But should you grow boorish about the matter, and steel yourself against the poor cows, why, just tell a policeman to have them kept out of your premises, and it is sure to be done.

There's no trouble about the thing; if you don't want the cows just now so. The city authorities will see that they are not pressed upon you.

So endeth the first lesson.

Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

Doctors Will Differ.

The following characteristic letter speaks for itself; is plain English; needs no interpreter. Read it:

NEW MADISON, OHIO,
February 18, 1880.

Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield, Abingdon, Va.:—Gentlemen: Inclosed find $5.00 for another half dozen bottles of the Seven Springs "Iron and Alum Mass." My wife's health is better this winter than it has been for years, and I have spent hundreds of dollars for medicines and physicians' bills, but the "Iron and Alum Mass" is the cheapest remedy I have found, and has done the most good, consequently I am encouraged to continue its use, notwithstanding our family physician says it is for RICH PEOPLE with nothing much the matter with them. Well, we are not rich, and I suppose it operates differently on POOR PEOPLE. My wife has been an invalid for years, and is getting better "Doctors will differ." Send me the Mass. Experience is better than logic. Respectfully,

JAMES M. CARR.

Dead Shot.

Among the large number of sportsmen in the city now but few, if any, may be called "dead shots" and the same is true of smokers, but the "dead shot" five cent cigar sold by W. C. & A. B. Stronach has been tried for years and never fails. It is therefore true to its name and only requires a trial to convince. Call for the "dead shot" and have no other.

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
